Salute - - -

A salute to the loyal troopers of '46 who have left the G. H. S. "Big Top" to take part in a command performance staged by Uncle Sam.

Dedication

To express our sincere gratitude for their untiring efforts in guiding and encouraging us during our high school days, we, the Class of 1946, dedicate this Aeolian to our Mothers and Fathers.

Directors

Mr. Minniear

Miss Nell

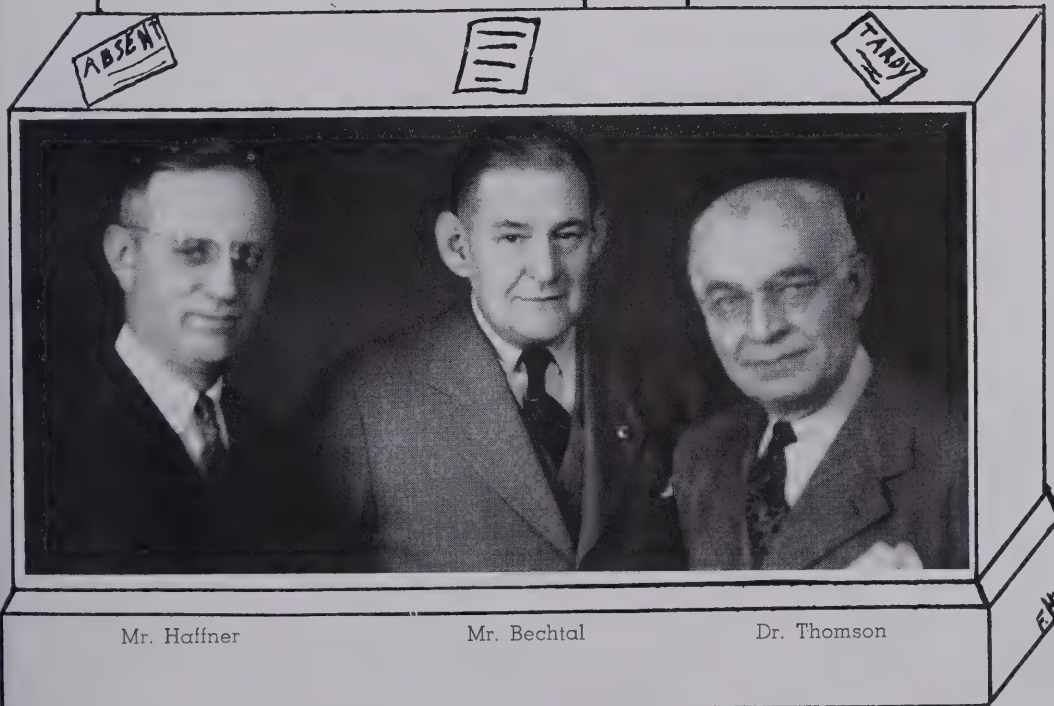

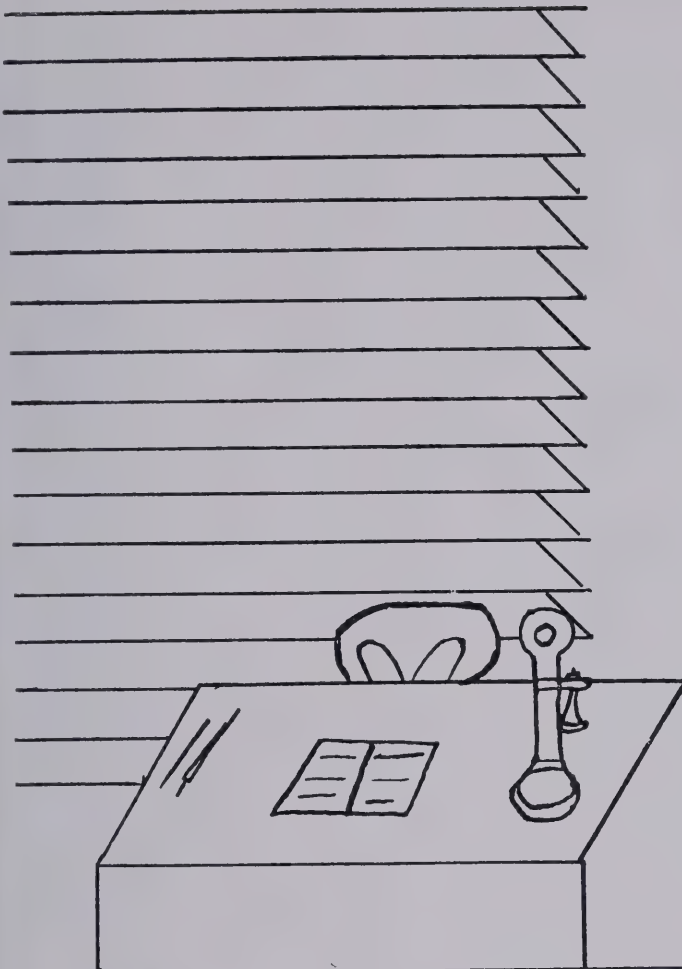

Under the G.H.S. Big Top is found the power behind the scenes, the Board of Directors. Due to the efficiency and diligence of the members of this group in providing proper equipment, in securing capable teachers and in helping to maintain high standards in every phase of our school world, the show has progressed.

The wise council of Mr. Painter, the understanding guidance of Mr. Minniear, the sympathetic patience of Miss Nell will always be remembered during the "tight rope act" of life.

In Memoriam

"Mid youth and song, feasting and carnival,
Through laughter, through the roses, as of old
Comes Death, on shadowy and relentless feet."

Virginia Chittenden started her high school career with us as a freshman, pursuing the College Preparatory Course. She participated actively in class room projects and made many friends about school. We regret that we are not privileged to list her as one to complete the senior year with us.

Class History

As we star performers, the Seniors of '46, stop to view the passing parade of events in G. H. S., we think of the pleasures and experiences of our previous acts, of our successful ventures and some failures, and of the new acquaintances we have encountered.

When we were punks and amateur performers, we struggled through our preliminary training, ever looking forward to our part as star performers. We were welcomed into the Big Top* as Kinkers* with a party given by the Sophomores. During this act we organized our class and school program, carefully keeping an eye on our expectations in future performances. Graduated to the Joey* act, we found ourselves in the full swing of things and gave ourselves a "Sophomore Spring Splash."

As Stand-Ins we tasted the first real test for our ability to keep the show going. During this performance we chose class rings, presented a comical "Junior Chautauqua". By selling candy at noon; pop, potato chips, and hot dogs at games, we were able to highlight the close of this act by financing and presenting a "Junior-Senior Banquet" in a gay way-out-west style.

Beginning our fourth and final performance in the G. H. S. Big Top as Star Performers, we were confronted with the usual Senior problems. We chose our class motto, "For all your days prepare and meet them ever alike"; flower, scarlet carnation; and colors, scarlet and gray; selected class sweaters of scarlet and gray; made year-book plans; and successfully presented a class play, "Second Fiddle." Ending our happiest, most eventful performance in G. H. S. was a banquet given for us by the Junior class.

Now as we prepare to go out into an even bigger performance of making our way in the world, we fully realize the importance of our school days and acquaintanceships. We find our experiences to be happy memories and we are wholly reluctant to leave the G. H. S. "Big Top."

4th Row—Richard Sarber, Joseph Brokaw, Gerald Johnson, Jay Norris, Harold Yarde, Harold Diederich, William Hays, Edward Howard, Richard Drews, Ernest Stroh, Earl Clark, Howard Mattison, Carl Wetoskey.

It's a Barnum and Bailey world when all the Juniors get together with the idea of "starting the ball rolling."

Looking toward their future as star performers, these G. H. S. Stand-ins wisely set up their money-making routine. After long hours of ardent work for the success of their first important task, the Juniors satisfactorily presented to the spectators their musical comedy, campaign by selling their "pink lemonade, pop-campaign by selling their "pink lemonade, popcorn, and peanuts" at football and basketball games and at noon during the lunch hour.

With the cooperation of every Junior trooper and under the advice of their gaffers * Mr. Bateman, Mrs. Sweeney, and Mr. Lewis, the Juniors were able to present the Seniors with a unique banquet, entertaining and pleasing to the last minute.

The executives of their group, Gerald Johnson, president; Richard Drews, vice-president; and Beverly Haffner, secretary-treasurer; were largely responsible for the cooperative spirit of the class as a whole as they helped to "carry the show on" all through this year. With such "Stand-ins" to fill their shoes, the Seniors are proud and willing to relinquish their part under "The Big Top" as star performers to such a deserving group of troopers.

Joeys★

Without "joeys" in the parade of the "Big Top" things just wouldn't be complete, for pleasure has its part in school life just as work. Although the Sophomores have a reputation of being full of fun and mischief, they also have their times of getting down to business. Cooperation in all school activities was one of their characteristics. Early in the year, they entertained the Freshmen with a skating party. Next year these active "kinkers" will get their real taste of entertainment for they will step into the shoes of the Juniors.

Helping to make their class "tops" have been the class officers, Norval Withrow, president; Charles Hartle, vice-president; Jane Owens, secretary; Joyce Barnes, treasurer; and their sponsors, Miss Johns, Miss Evard, and Mr. Rose.

Kinkers★

With four years of work ahead of them, these "kinkers" stepped easily into the position left to them by last year's freshmen and set out to accomplish their freshman duties. There was no false "make-up" in their way of entertaining the spectators for they all took a special study program in personality from such advisors as Mrs. Fouch, Mr. Harmon, and Mr. Woodcox each eighth period on Tuesday during their guidance program.

Promoting their debut, the "kinkers" pushed themselves into third place as salesmen in the Magazine Drive, thus entitling them entrance in the "marquee" instead of the back-stage door. Helping their class into the "headlines" of G. H. S. life were the freshman officers: James Moses, president; William Mavity, vice-president; Janet Engle, sec'y-treasurer.

There is no reason for failure in the program of the "Big Top" with these "kinkers" following closely behind.

1st Row—Jimmie Schramm, Arnold Dose, Joe Myers, Norman Runion, William Turner, Robert Donley, Kess Crager, Theron Tuttle, Kenneth Sliger.

4th Row—Jeannette Fenstermaker, Marilyn Conner, Glenna Snyder, Deloris Luttman, Bertha Peterson, Esther Davidson, Kathleen Murphy, Elnora Smith, Sarah McCarter, Eula May Freeman, Janet Engle, Fannie May Rowe, Carolyn Stroh, Shirley Grimm, Wilma Godwin.

Amateur Performers

Well on the way to "stardom" are these rollicking, likable "amateur performers" under the "Big Top". Although amateur performers usually do not help build the show, but this group certainly did its share in putting over the Christmas program and the Magazine Drive. With such efficient leadership from Mr. Coble, Mr. Manges, and Mr. Dunkin, who was succeeded by Miss Biggerstaff, it is no wonder that these "amateurs" were good boosters in school programs and activities.

The "punks" in the "kid top"* are the future stars of G. H. S. They are quickly learning the fundamental "ropes" and ways of circus life through the reading of books and the active participation in their different class room projects. Under the capable guidance of their "ring masters", Mr. Ober, Miss Cobler, Miss V. Hall, Miss Dean, Miss A. Hall, Mr. Coble, Mrs. Bateman, Miss Ellert, Mrs. Jordan, and Miss Gilbert, they are assured the best luck "on the road."

BILL BOARD

The circus grounds were crowded and bright,
As the people came in on the very first night.
First in line was Mary Lou Schlosser,
Followed by Schulthess, Lazenby, and Fisher.

We were greeted by Worster, selling ducits* for a yard*,
Who find that cake-cutting* isn't very hard.
Anna's juice joint* stands inside the markee*,
Its location in front makes it easy to see.

While waiting in line we see Anderson, the bug man*,
Selling his chameleons as fast as he can.
Before us a tram act* comes into view,
Featuring Hill and Cook, a team that is new.

Florence Travis gives Annie Oakleys* to all she knows,
And tells them to hurry to see the best of shows.
Coming out of the keester* is Brinkman, the gaffer*,
Followed by Lewis and Hays carrying some paper*.

Entering the big top* we sighted in the blue*,
Hazeltine and Brandenburg sitting in their pew
While next to them is seated Bond and Busz,
Calmly enjoying popcorn and fuzz*

We spotted something looking just like a rabbit,
But finally decided it was Lester Babbit,
Along with Jamison, Tuck, and Bowmar,
Acclaimed for their clownability wide and afar.

Turning our heads a little to the right,
We see the windjammers* coming in sight,
At the head Marian Engle is still their leader,
Followed by Jeanne Dills blowing tones evcn sweeter—

ADVERTISEMENT

Than has ever been heard by us before,
While Chub Van Fleit upholds the drum corps.
Around the midway to the kidtops* we go,
In hopes that we won't miss any sideshow.

We notice that Allman and Kelly at last,
Are making Swamie Whirledge's Mitt Joint* fast,
And Shanty* Royer with his helper Fred Haffner,
Is working hard amid all the laughter—

Which from the fun house does loudly come,
Where speeler* Dick Smith is far from mum.
Geek* Seidel sitting by her big worm*,
Is really making that slimy thing squirm.

So that Shipe, Waterbeck, and Panning,
As thistle-chins* think the show exciting.
Ashenfelter the bag guy* is selling his cherries*,
And helping direct everybody to Mary's*.

We follow the main stem* to the tent,
Where the animals are readied for the big event.
Doris and June famed riders of rosin backs*,
Are followed by Bohls leading the bull*, Max.

Now come the cats* with Ellis their trainer,
Ahead of the convicts* guided by Gerner.
The gravediggers* and old folks* are next in line,
Headed by Greenwalt, their tricks should be fine.

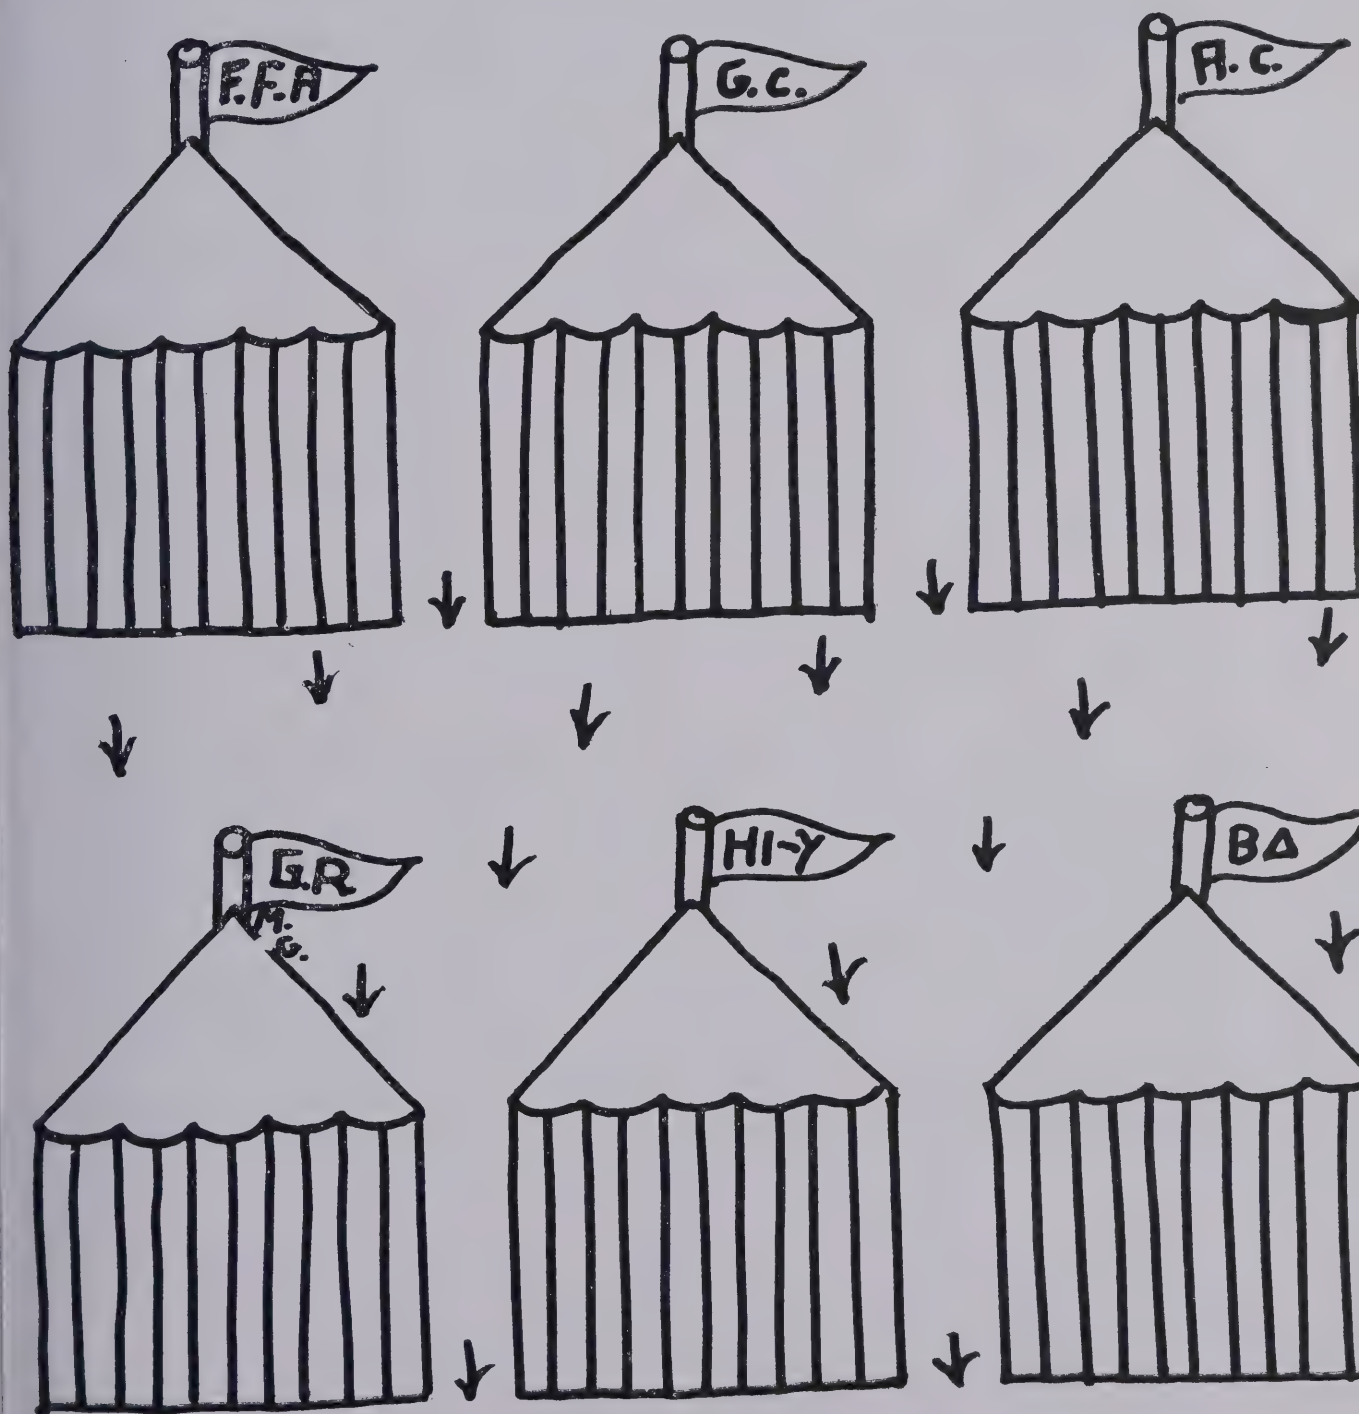

Ringmaster* Ross now appears on the scene,
His features are sharp and his wit it is keen.
So we'll leave you now and go right on in,
The signal has sounded for the show to begin.

Girl Reserves

1st Row—Marjorie Fenstermaker, Dorothy Waterbeck, Anna Woodcox, Betty Brinkman, Marian Engle, Helen Hill, Pearl Gerner, Marilyn Greenwalt, Marjorie McIntosh, Mary Louise Strock, Reba Ellis, Miss Thrush.

2nd Row—Mary Bair, Leah Malcolm, Josephine Hays, Claudine Fisher, Catherine Kern, Lucille Bond, Barbara Myers, Myrna Whirledge, Mary Ruth Van Fleit, Ruth Deihl, Doris Howey, Thais Seidel.

In the programs throughout the year, the Girl Reserves have tried to bring out the club purposes among which are "loyalty to friends, giving the best, gracious in manner, impartial in judgment and to face life squarely."

Included in the memories of the past year are the initiation of new girls, the tea dances sponsored by the adult council, the fall weiner roast, the Mother-Daughter dinner, the G. R. Hi-Y party, and the Spring Ceremonial. Various methods were used for making money such as the Chicken Noodle Dinner, Sandwich sales, and the Chile Dinner.

Under the direction of Miss Thrush, as advisor, and the following officers, Myrna Whirledge, president; Gloria Van Derbosch, vice-president; Mary Bair, secretary; Helen Hill, treasurer; Eulalee Busz, service chairman; Virginia Hall, social chairman; Mary Ruth Van Fleit, program chairman, the club experienced a happy and successful year.

Blue Triangle

The Blue Triangle, the "little sister" organization of Girl Reserve, had a membership of 56 girls.

In their program they prepared themselves for "Life Abundant" by developing leadership and ability to work with other people, by emphasizing ways and codes of life, and by presenting parties, teas, and other social enjoyments. Some high-lights of the social activities were the initiation of freshman girls, the fall weiner bake, skating party, Valentine party, and Mother-Daughter Tea. The selling of Christmas cards again this year boosted them to the top rung of the ladder, financially.

A very successful year was enjoyed by the club under the direction of the sponsors, Mrs. Meier and Miss Jones, and the following officers: Marilyn Heinlin, president; Jayne Owens, vice-president; Margaret Smith, secretary; and Esther Stevens, treasurer.

1st Row—Martha Bloom, Joyce Barnes, Florine Bush, Marcine Ashenfelter, Evelyn Smith, Marilyn Brown, Marjorie Newman, Delores Boester, Ann Greenwalt, Miss Johns.

3rd Row—Mary Sue Laign, Diane Hopkins, Marilyn Heinlin, Dorothy Day, Eula Freeman, Jeannette Fenster maker, Deloris Luttman, Bertha Peterson, Glenna MaeSnyder, Carolyn Stroh, Wilma Godwin, Janet Engle.

Hi-Y

The Hi-Y Club has been an influential club in Garret High School for many years. This club not only stresses citizenship, and sportmanship, but emphasizes training in Christian fellowship.

Initiating new members into the club was the first activity of the new year. In their initiation, the new members learned the club slogan, "clean speech, clean sports, clean scholarship, clean living" and the club purpose "to create, maintain, and extend throughout school and community high standards of Christian character." The club sponsored two skating parties, took up collection for tuberculosis drive, and sold pencils with basketball schedules printed on them.

This group was under the sponsorship of Mr. Rose and the leadership of Harold Ross, president; Richard Drews, vice-president; Normand Higgins, secretary; and Richard Smith, treasurer.

Future Farmers of America

The F. F. A. Club, an outstanding organization in Garrett High School, has many functions. Other than just to teach the fundamentals of farming, this club stresses co-operation, citizenship, and other everyday essentials.

The F. F. A. members appear in many places around school following their various projects. They may be in the shop repairing parts of broken machinery, or in the lunch room selling milk to students, or in Room One deeply engrossed in an agriculture book, or on some field trip. Then, too, there is the part of the club activities to which the members eagerly look forward which includes weiner roasts, skating parties, the Donkey Basketball game, and social parties.

The F. F. A. Club is under the advisership of Mr. Bateman, and the leadership of Gene Custer, president; Bill Dawson, vice-president; Wayne Haynes, secretary; and Lorin Cook, treasurer.

Band

1st Row—Marian Engle, Mary Bair, Carolyn Lewis, Mary Ruth Van Fleit, Lucille Bond, Helen Hill, Patricia Owens.

2nd Row—Vincent Bartlett, Donald Gentry, Frank Mossberger, Margaret Smith, Catherine Kern, Martha Bloom, Marjorie Fenstermaker, Mary Lou Smith, Charles Waterbeck, Miss Stemen.

The High School Band, Girls' Glee Club, and Boys' Glee Club, under the capable direction of Miss Stemen, formed the "musical ring" in Garrett High School.

The band with thirty-seven members added zest and spirit to the performances under the "Big Top". Taking part in the 4-H Achievement Program, the DeKalb County Fair, and many other civic events, the "circus band" became well known. Star performers in the band were: drum major, Marian Engle; twirlers, Helen Hill, Mary Bair, and Pat Owens. The business directors were Jeanne Dills, president; Mary Ruth Van Fleit, vice-president; and Jayne Owens, secretary-treasurer.

An "added attraction" in the Garrett High School Program was the sixty-six members of the Girls' Glee Club. At the Junior Musical Comedy, the Christmas program, the spring concert, Commencement, and Baccalaureate, these girls were "featured." Leaders of the club were: Myrna Whirledge, president; Helen Hill, vice-president; Mary Ruth Van Fleit, secretary-treasurer; Margaret Smith, librarian.

An entertaining part of the circus ring was the Eight Man Act which had a unique way of presenting songs. Having sung at the Lion's Club, the Thanksgiving program, Christmas program, the Junior Musical Comedy, Commencement, and Baccalaureate, this group became quite famous. Headmen in the act were: Harold Ross, president; Richard Smith, vice-president; Loren Ashenfelter, treasurer; and Miss Stemen, director.

Glee Clubs

2nd Row—Anna Woodcox, Pearl Gerner, Myrna Whirledge, Mary Ruth Van Fleit, Mary Sue Laign, Jane Owens, Phyllis Beck, Joan Helbert, Joyce Barnes, Marian Engle, Helen Hill, Fannie Mae Rowe, Bertha Peterson.

Scouts

1st Row—Robert Stiles, Maynard Clark, Ronald Williams, Douglas Shull, Royce Higgins, Gareth Reese, Donald Gentry, Mr. Woodcox.

2nd Row—Howard Hicks, Billy Hofferan, William Mavity, Lloyd Myers, James Garrison, Douglas Zimmerman, Blaine Peters.

In the parade of organizations of Garrett High School, the Scout Club is one definitely recognized for its creative activities. Its members are known not only as trailblazers and fire-builders, but also as leaders in community projects and as an outstanding representative body of young men in our school.

Shop activities such as woodwork, leathercraft, and metalwork are not only school projects, but important factors in earning merit badges. Pioneering is another activity in Scout work. In this work the Scouts make model signal towers, bridges, huts, and rafts all fastened together by lashings.

The Scout Club and activities were under the guidance of Mr. Woodcox, with Edwin Mortorff, junior assistant-scout master; William Ervin, senior patrol leader; Martin Woodcox, scribe and treasurer of the club.

Librarians

Handy men on the grounds were these librarians. Always ready and willing to help, these students under the supervision of Mrs. Sweeney did a fine "act." They not only checked the many volumes of books, but also assisted in keeping the shelves neat and helped fellow students locate various materials.

3rd Row—Mrs. Sweeney, Irma Stohl, Vincent Bartlett, Earl Schlotterback, Gloria Meyers.

Bible Study Club

1st Row—Doris Howey, Vera Howey, Joan Gilbert
2nd Row—Beverly Shutt, Nora Dennis, Rosa Bloom, Susanna Nicholas.

"To acquire a more complete understanding of the ways of the Bible, these students strove."

Under the supervision of Rev. Dunkin the first semester, and Miss Biggerstaff the second, these students met each Thursday the eighth period to read and discuss various chapters of the Bible. Students who were members of this club for two years earned an extra credit in elective English if they passed a creditable examination over the course which the Bible Club presented.

Officers of the club were: Ruth Diehl, president; Vera Howey, vice-president; Lois Davidson, secretary-treasurer.

Quill and Scroll

The Quill and Scroll Club in the hands of their trainer, Miss Evard, and her assistants, president, Betty Brinkman; vice president, Anna Woodcox; secretary-treasurer, Pearl Gerner, did its bit to make the parade under the "Big Top" a success. The club consisted of members of the Journalism classes of 1945 and 1946 who were interested in journalistic work of various types. Meeting each Monday the eighth period, the members wrote several articles for the high school paper, the "Panorama."

Although the club maintained a fairly inactive status this past year, it sponsored several very interesting and entertaining assembly programs throughout the year.

1st Row—Mary Louise Stock, Betty Brinkman, Anna Woodcox.
2nd Row—Thais Seidel, Martha Fletcher, Mary Ruth Van Fleit, Pearl Gerner.
3rd Row—Louise Covelli, Doris Yarde, Harold Ross, Lenore Lewis, Miss Evard.

Girls' Athletic Club

1st Row—Martha Bloom, Marjorie Zoll, Marjorie McIntosh, Helen Ransom, Reba Ellis, Joyce Barnes, Helen Hill, Marjorie Fenstermaker, Miss Johns.

Basketball was the main sport in the G. A. C. which included fifty-six girls this year. The girls were organized into six different teams with the following captains: Jeanne Dills, Pat Van Lear, Mary Ruth Van Fleit, Lenore Lewis, Pearl Gerner, and Gloria Van Derbosch. Before their basketball season started, the girls played volleyball and baseball. The Senior volleyball team was exceptionally good.

Playing games every Monday night, the girls ended their season with an elimination tournament. For a grand finale, the losing team entertained the rest of the club with a party.

Senior girls received chevrons for each year that they were members of this club, and those with a four-year record received honor pins.

Officers of G. A. C. were: Mary Lou Schlosser, president; Helen Hill, vice-president; and Marian Engle, secretary-treasurer.

Aeolian Staff

Compiling a year book at any time is no small task and due to unfavorable weather conditions and too much goo*, the staff of the 1946 Aeolian had to give them Brown's cow* in order to complete their job.

Credit and appreciation is duly paid to Mr. Flora, the business manager, for his efficiency and ever-ready tack hammer*, to Miss Thrush, the literary advisor, for her untiring patience and quick response to our Hey, Rube*, and to Miss Gump, managing the typing department, for her efforts in getting things done. The performance of each was largely responsible for keeping the show rolling.

It is with a great deal of pleasure that the staff presents to the performers and spectators under the G. H. S. Bip Top this 1946 Aeolian.

2nd Row—Haroldean Kelley, Allen Bohls, Lawrence Bowmar, Eulalee Busz, Mary Lou Schlosser, Lenore Lewis, Pearl Gerner, Jean Dills.

3rd Row—Mr. Flora, Miss Gump, Miss Thrush.

The "Big Top's 1946 Football season was of a mediocre billing, producing three wins, five losses, and one tie. Coach Parks combined the two returning "top performers" with his "amateurs", giving the team experience for future years.

Due to several accidents at the beginning of the season, some of the boys were unable to play until the last few games.

The Garrett Railroaders were hard fighters making their opponents work in every game. The boys were well known for their ability to keep going regardless of the odds.

With only a few seniors leaving the line-up, next year's team should prove even more victorious.

Football Letter-Men

- 1 Lawrence Bowmar—Sr., quarterback, captain, two-year letterman. Cotton, the spirit and pep of the team, managed several spectacular runs this year. Preventing more than one touchdown, he proved his defensive ability.
- 2 Haroldean Kelley—Sr., end, two-year letterman. Pinky was very adept at dumping opposing blockers and at slicing through to upset the runner.
- 3 Bill Worster—Sr., halfback, one-year letterman. Willie was a good ball handler and his speciality was throwing a running pass.
- 4 Allen Bohls—Sr., tackle, one-year letterman. Bobo, the largest man on the squad, gave our team psychological advantage and was a hard hitter.
- 5 Julian Allman—Sr., tackle, one-year letterman. Duan accomplished two of his main ambitions—a football letter and a good linesman.
- 6 Lester Babbitt—Sr., halfback, one-year letterman. Les was the "fast" man on the team. Wide end runs were his speciality.
- 7 Lorin Cook—Sr., center, one-year letterman. Playing football for his first time this year, Lorin was a hard tackler and a good linesman.
- 8 Richard Smith—Sr., end, one-year letterman. Due to a bad ankle, Dick's season was short but hard fought.
- 9 Gerald Johnson—Jr., halfback, one-year letterman. Fast-stepping Jerry had a fine throwing arm which he used to the team's advantage.
- 10 Earl Clark—Jr., end, one-year letterman. Because of his uncanny ability to snag passes, Earl was one of the great offensive threats on the team.
- 11 Edward Howard—Jr., halfback, one-year letterman. Whitie was a fast and shifty back who could carry the "pack" through the line or around the end.
- 12 Donald Cleland—Jr., fullback, one-year letterman. Don, the power of the team, specialized in making his own holes if there wasn't one there.
- 13 Richard Sarber—Jr., center, one-year letterman. Ric was a big factor in making holes for his own team and putting up a stonewall when on defense.
- 14 Stanley Bonnett—Jr. guard, one-year letterman. Stan was a small but mighty man with plenty of power behind him.
- 15 George Pearson—Soph., guard, one-year letterman. Georgie teamed up to bring down any line plunge or off tackle runs.
- 16 Howard Simpson—Soph., tackle, one-year letterman. Simp loved a good game. Much is to be expected of him in the next two years.

Others who earned varsity letters were:

Allen Souder, Norval Withrow, Ned Schlosser, William Dawson, Edwin Mor-torff, Henry Zecca, Carl Wetoskey, and Gene Custer.

Basketball

Beginning the basketball season with only two returning lettermen, the Railroaders were up against great odds. After eight straight losses, these boys showed their pep by defeating Avilla and later going to the final game in the county tournament. After conquering Salem Center in the sectional tournament, the Railroaders were forced to bow out to Auburn for the second time during the year.

Although the season was not a victorious one, the team displayed fine sportsmanship and put up a good "clem"* in all their games.

Basketball Letter-Men

- 1 Haroldean Kelley—Senior, captain and center of the team. "Pinky" was a valuable asset under the basket and elsewhere on the court. Two-year letterman.
- 2 Bill Worster—Senior. "Bill" was the "joker" of the team keeping his teammates in good spirits and proving himself a reliable man in the forward spot. One-year letterman.
- 3 Earl Clark—Junior. "Clark" was well known for his ability to hit baskets from "his spot" well out on the court. Playing a forward position, he rebounded very well. Two-year letterman.
- 4 Gerald Johnson—Junior. "Jerry" played a guard position, excelling in rebounding and preventing fast breaks. One-year letterman.
- 5 Ned Schlosser — Sophomore. "Ned" showed surprising ability this year and moved from the second team to a regular forward spot on the first team. Baskets from any position were his specialty. One-year letterman.
- 6 Howard Simpson—Sophomore. "Simp" was the "Brawn" of the team, keeping referees busily blowing their whistles. He proved to be a good guard and rebounder. One-year letterman.
- 7 Allen Souder—Junior. "Al" made a good replacement for forward position, hitting the bucket anywhere on the floor. One-year letterman.
- 8 Richard Sarber—Junior. "Ric" was the "Big" boy of the team, playing guard position. One-year letterman.
- 9 Donald Cleland—Junior. "Donny", subbing at the center position, has an unexplainable left-hand pivot shot which usually zings through. One-year letterman.
- 10 George Pearson—Sophomore. "Georgie", playing guard position, kept the opponents jumping from start to finish. One-year letterman.
- 11 William Dawson—Junior. "Bill", a forward, had a wicked dribble and left-handed shot. One-year letterman.
- 12 Robert Treesh—Sophomore. "Bob" was a good rebounding center. He will be valuable material for next year. One-year letterman.
- 13 Edwin Mortorff—Sophomore. "Eddie" had speed to burn and used it cleverly to spark the second team to success. One-year letterman.

Around the cinder path this spring was seen the "Big Top's" 1946 track team, diligently practicing and training. Material from last year was lacking in quantity and the team had to be built from scratch. Despite the spirit and cooperation shown, this year's team lacked experience but put up a good showing in each meet. The overwhelming response to the first call to practice gave Coach Parks high hopes.

Assisting Mr. Parks by handling the field events, high jumping, broad jumping, pole vaulting, and shot putting, was Mr. Lewis.

The increase of interest in track events produced a better track team this year, and should give the "Big Top" an even more promising group of cindermen next year.

Barkers

Marilyn Heinlin, Marjorie Fenstermaker, Martha Fletcher, Joyce Barnes, Patricia Van Lear, Jean Dills.

The six "Barkers", Marjorie Fenstermaker, Martha Fletcher, Jeanne Dills, Pat Van Lear, Joyce Barnes, and Marilyn Heinlin, have succeeded in their task of keeping up the school spirit and eagerness of the students through the football and basketball seasons. Starting out as an entirely new group with only one veteran, Pat Van Lear, they have organized themselves fully and have held pep sessions before many games.

Although this has been a slack season in basketball and football, the "Barkers" deserve much recognition and many compliments for their splendid work.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1946, do hereby will and consign our idiosyncrasies which we have held during our four years at G. H. S. We sincerely hope that our heirs will cherish them and by the use of them, remember us.

I, Jack Jamison, will to Jimmy Moses my ability to stay awake in school after a sleepless night.

I, Doris Yarde, will my love for music and my affections for Huntertown to anyone who could love either more than I.

I, Loren B. Ashenfelter, consign my 5 ft. 4 in. in height to some Freshman boy to whom it would be more fitting. I trust that he will improve upon it considerably during the next four years.

I, Jeanne Dills, will to Marjory McIntosh my ability to whistle "Clare De Lune", and also my good times in my Senior year at G. H. S.

Reluctantly I, "Chub" Van Fleit, will to Jerry Johnson the pleasure of carrying on my weekly parties. May his end at an earlier hour than mine.

I, Richard Smith, will my "gift of gab" to Tuffy Peters.

I, Lenore Lewis, will to Martha Fletcher my broken front teeth so she can make even funnier faces.

I, Thais Seidel, will my blond hair and fondness for K-Ville to Louise Covelli.

I, Lorin Cook, will my ability to loaf and still make good grades in Agriculture to Dale Schulthess.

I, Dorothy Waterbeck, will my bashfulness to any Junior wanting it.

I, Marian Engle, will my interest in the Navy to Doris Burtch.

I, Mary Hazeltine, will my liking of long skirts to Rosemary Smith.

I, Lester Babbitt, will my can of sleeping powder to Billy Mavity.

I, Reba Ellis, will my ability to talk in Home Ec. class to Marjorie Strock.

I, Mary Louise Strock, will my place on the front row of all group pictures, due to my height, to Esther Stevens. It has other disadvantages, too.

I, Marlene Brandenburg, will to Sue Rowe a name as long as mine.

I, Allen Bohls, will my enthusiasm for Senior English to any Junior who wants it.

I, Jo Hays, dutifully will to Miss Gump the thoughts of having many more kids like me in her shorthand class. Poor Miss Gump!

I, Mary Lou Schlosser, will to Howard Simpson my luck of just making it before the 8:30 bell.

I, Harold Ross, will to Charles Argubright my ability to say the wrong things at the right time.

I, Virginia Shipe, will my shortness to Virginia Hall.

I, Marilyn Greenwalt, will to Carolyn Lewis good luck to get a boyfriend taller than she.

I, Fred Haffner, will to Billy Hays my mechanical drawing ability.

Class Will

I, Audrey Lazenby, will last minute preparations for class to anyone who needs it in the future.

I, Julian Allman, being of sound (?) mind and body, do consign my love for Trigonometry to "Chuckie Hartle.

Hesitantly! do I, Betty Brinkman, will my ability to get along with the opposite sex to anyone who will appreciate it.

I, Myrna Whirledge, will all my broken pairs of glasses to any Junior blind enough to be able to use them, but don't ask me how they got broken.

I, Donald Royer, will my curly hair to Stanley Bonnet. May he profit by it.

I, Anna Woodcox, will the dimples in my cheeks, and my musical tendencies to Phyllis Beck. I will also, my interest in Avilla to other interest holders.

I, Helen Hill, will my ability to remain short to Earl Clark.

I, Jack Panning, will my ability for getting into trouble to Emmet Traxler.

I, Eulalee Busz, will my too convenient last name as a nickname to anyone who cares to forget they ever had a given name.

I, Bill Worster, will my place on the bench during football and basketball season to whoever wants it.

I, Claudine Fisher, will my interest in Castle's delivery boy to Bertha Peterson.

I, Lawrence Bowmar, consign my ability to safely drive a car (especially the art of backing) to Gene Custer.

I, Florence Travis, will my ability to get along with boys to Dot Day.

To Phyllis DePew, I, Pearl Gerner, will my front seat in economics.

I, Grayson Tuck, will my red hair to "Blondie" Harris.

I, Lucille Bond, will my height to Marg Fenstermaker, she needs it.

I, Haroldean Kelley, will to any Junior with a life insurance policy, my drawer and experiences in the Chemistry Lab.

I, June Yarde, will my voice to Dick Ober.

I, Martha Schulthess, will my "good hunting" locker to Colleen Miller who has had good experience with her own locker next to mine.

I, Philmer Anderson, devotedly relinquish to Coach Parks my ability for wrestling.

Hereby setting our seal upon this document, the entire class leaves a lasting affection for G. H. S.

"Second Fiddle"

For our class play, we Star Performers of '46 presented a comedy in three acts, "Second Fiddle" by Guernsey LePelley. The story revolves around an accidental marriage and all the mix-ups and misunderstandings that follow.

Under the direction and supervision of Miss Gump, the play was successfully presented to the spectators. This special feature was one of the high lights of the "Big Top's" season, ending our Senior year in a blaze of lights.

Featured performers:

Harold Werple, the man in the case	Harold Ross
Joan Keeler, Marion's nece	Marian Engle
Mrs. Marion Baker, "Aunt" Marion	Mary Ruth Van Fleit
Minnie Carson, a guest	Helen Hill
Wilbur, the butler	Grayson Tuck
Janet Williams, a guest	Eulalee Busz
Dorothy Van Straaten, Harold's fiance	Mary Hazeltine
Mrs. Anne Keeler, Joan's mother	Martha Schulthess
Mr. Crouch, a lawyer	Loren Ashenfelter

"Hearts and Blossoms"

An outstanding special attraction under the "Big Top" this year was the Junior Musical Comedy, "Hearts and Blossoms". Featuring Juniors and Seniors alike, this show played an important part in helping along the Junior finances. Lending their voices in the choruses, the Glee Club added spirit and zest to this comedy.

Starring Mary, Harold, Jerry, Phyllis, Gloria, and Dick (top picture) the play also included a quaint old-fashioned dance with Marjory, Benny, Caroline, David, Pat, and Gene (second picture).

The Juniors deserve all the credit they received for producing such a fine, successful musical comedy.

HEY! RUBE!

HIGH SCHOOL

First year—Emerald.
Second year—Soapstone.
Third year—Grindstone.
Fourth year—Tombstone.

The high school paper is a great invention.
The school gets all the fame,
The printer gets all the money,
And the staff gets all the blame.

"What's the matter with your pen, Dick?"
"It writes like a paint brush."

Freshie at the end of first semester, "Teacher, may we take our algebras home, now?"

Mr. Flora, "Electricity doesn't kill you, it's your heart that stops beating."

Mr. Rose, "What is 'N' cents?"
Loren A., "What you put in your house to make it smell good."

Mrs. Meir, "What term is connected with assault?"
M. Greenwalt, "Pepper."

Teacher, "You eating something, Haroldean?"
H. Kelley, "No, teacher, I am soaking a prune to eat at the noon hour."

When asked why he was taking public speaking Julian Allman replied, "So that I will always have something to say." (AS IF HE DIDN'T ALWAYS.)

The best excuse for being absent from school was given by M. Engle. She said, "I was fixing my dad's income tax."

Miss B., "Give me a sentence with an object."

R. Smith, "Teacher, you are beautiful."
Miss B., "And just what is the object there?"
R. Smith, "A good grade."

Early to bed and early to rise,
Keeps the red out of the whites of your eyes.

Flattery is 90% soap, and soap is 90% lye.

Laugh and the world laughs with you,
Laugh and you laugh alone.
The first joke was your teacher's
The second was your own.

"Lester, have you got enough suckers to go around?" asked Mrs. Meier.

"No, but you can take turns on this one."

Miss Stemen, "This experiment should be done under a hood."

F. Jamison, "Put on Your Old Gray Bonnet."

If onions fry, will Loren Cook?
If sewing machines hum, will Grayson Tuck?
If mosquitoes sing, will Eulalee Busz?

Jeanne, "Did you ever read 'Lion in the Street?'"

Chub, "No, I read sitting up in bed."

Dawn and Cotton at a ball game:
Cotton, "I think Bill Worster will be our best man."

Dawn, "Oh, Cotton, this is so sudden."

Mr. Lewis, "Of course, I know that those slips of paper that most of you have in your books are merely book marks, but I would much prefer you wouldn't use them."
